

Terms of Use

By visiting our Web site, you agree that you will not use the site for any unlawful activity. Any use of the Web site shall comply with all county, state and federal laws and regulations.

Collection of Information

No personally identifiable information is collected when you simply browse this Web site. The types of information that we do collect include, the Internet domain and IP address, the type of browser or operating system that you used to access the site and the pages that you visited.

If you fill out a form or send an e-mail, the information that you volunteer will be collected. If any of the information that you submit on a form is classified as private or confidential you will receive the appropriate legal notification on the form. All other information collected through the Web site will be defined as public. This information may be disclosed upon request.

Other Web sites

This Web site provides links to other Web sites. These may include sites operated by government agencies, nonprofit organizations and/or private businesses. When you follow a link to any other Web site you are subject to the privacy policy and disclaimer of that Web site. The Anoka County Children and Family Council and collaborative initiatives have no control over and take no responsibility for Web sites constructed by other organizations or any information contained on those Web sites. Portions of information on other Web sites may be incorrect or not current. Any individual or entity that relies on any information obtained from other Web site does so at his or her own risk.

Information on Our Web Site

The Anoka County Children and Family Council and initiatives have made reasonable efforts to ensure all of the information provided on this Web site is accurate. However, due to the number of sources from which information for this Web site was obtained, and the inherent hazards of electronic distribution, there may be inaccurate information on this Web site.

The Anoka County Children and Family Council and initiatives shall not be liable for any damages, loss, injury or personal injury resulting directly or indirectly from use of this site.

The Anoka County Children and Family Council and initiatives may discontinue or change the Web site or its availability at any time.

If you have any questions or concerns regarding this information please call 763-323-6034.